JFCS Welcomes new Chief Development Officer

Please join us as we welcome Carol Sack as our new Chief Development Officer at Jewish Family and Children's Service of Southern Arizona (JFCS).

Ms. Sack has worked locally in the non-profit sector for over 20 years, most recently as the Executive Director of the Handmaker Foundation. She has extensive ties to the Jewish community throughout Arizona. Ms. Sack previously was the Executive Director for the Women's Foundation of Southern Arizona as well as the Development Director for Handmaker Jewish Services for the Aging. Additionally, Ms. Sack is a founding member of the Arizona Women's Chamber of Commerce as well as a board member for the Southern Arizona Center Against Sexual Assault. JFCS is excited to enhance our services with her level of expertise and networking skills.

Since 1941, JFCS has provided a variety of social services to the community; serving people of all races, religions and ethnic origins. JFCS programs include Counseling & Support Services, Services for Older and Disabled Persons, Home Services, Refugee Services, and Community and Volunteer Services. JFCS operates Tucson Loan Chest and provides continuing education classes for people working in human services.

For more information, please call Staci Smith at 795-0300, ext 283.
