JFCS Welcomes new Chief Financial officer

Please join us as we welcome Lou Ciorca as the new Chief Financial Officer at Jewish Family and Children's Service of Southern Arizona (JFCS).

Mr. Ciorca has worked in the financial sector for 30 years, and in the non-profit sector for over ten, most recently as the Financial Director of Child Parent Centers in Tucson. He joins JFCS after working as adjunct faculty with Pima Community College and with organizations such as DM Federal Credit Union and the Xerox Corporation. Mr. Ciorca has extensive ties throughout the community and has demonstrated exceptional skills in advancing the financial picture for non-profits. JFCS is excited to enhance our agency with his level of financial expertise.

Since 1941, JFCS has provided a variety of social services to the community; serving people of all races, religions and ethnic origins. JFCS programs include Counseling & Support Services, Services for Older and Disabled Persons, Home Services, Refugee Services, and Community and Volunteer Services. JFCS operates Tucson Loan Chest and provides continuing education classes for people working in human services.
